

The Latin Mass: The Journal of Catholic Culture and Tradition

and Keep The Faith present the Eighth Annual Monterey Conference

Saturday February 7 & Sunday February 8, 2009

in Monterey, California at The Beach Resort, 2600 Sand Dunes Drive, Monterey, California

Fighting the Dictatorship of Relativism: Recovering Catholic First Principles

All Catholics are invited to attend – especially those committed to the Ancient Mass and Catholic tradition and culture.

Featured Speakers:

The Battle for the Ancient Mass

Father Calvin Goodwin, FSSP is currently a professor at Our Lady of Guadalupe Seminary in Denton, Nebraska and has been active in training diocesan priests to celebrate the Extraordinary Rite. He has been a Retreat Master and Parish Administrator.

The Philosophical Aspects of the Battle

Dr. Ronald P. McArthur is a contributing Editor of The Latin Mass magazine and President Emeritus of Thomas Aquinas College.

Commutative and Distributive Justice in the Battle

Christopher Ferrara is President and Chief Counsel of the American Catholic Lawyers Association, Inc., an organization dedicated to defending the religious and civil rights of Catholics. He is also a regular contributor to The Latin Mass magazine.

John Blewett, Editor of The Latin Mass magazine, will moderate the program and introduce the speakers.

Most Reverend Richard Garcia, DD., Bishop of Monterey, will greet conference attendees on Saturday afternoon.

Father Raymond Dunn will celebrate Holy Mass at 9:30 AM on Saturday and Sunday at the Resort with attendance restricted to program registrants.

Saturday's sit-down luncheon cost is included in the registration fee. There will be a no-host continental breakfast following Mass on Sunday.

Following Sunday's breakfast there will be a special presentation and discussion.
